Sunday Breakfast

We enjoyed an equally successful second Sunday Breakfast this month and were pleased to welcome old faces and new. There was a lovely community feel to the morning and, of course, a wonderful smell of bacon and sausages wafting across the village hall car park as people arrived. How could one resist!

On Sunday 4th June we have our benefice bring and share buffet style lunch following the Pentecost service at St Andrew's Church which starts at 11.00am. There will not be a Sunday breakfast on this day – we'd be too full! So the next Sunday breakfast is on 2nd July. Everyone is very welcome to join us for lunch on Sunday 4th June instead – just bring a plate of 'finger' food and join in the fun! We'll be pleased to see you.

Medieval Harvest at the Fete

As some of you will know, the theme for this year's Fete (Saturday 16th September) is Harvest. During this summer, the Archive Society will be holding their biennial exhibition in the Village Hall on 'History of the Land of Fontmell Parish and its use from earliest times to 1945' featuring, among many other things, medieval farming. The exhibition runs daily from 10.00am to 4.00pm on Thursday 27th July to Sunday 30th July.

So, putting it all together, this year's Scarecrow theme will be medieval characters, both harvesting and farming – lots of opportunities for you to pull out those flails, harrows, haymaking forks, winnowing baskets and wheeled ploughs you have stored at the back of your sheds! And it would be nice if the figures were stuffed with straw..... just 4 months to go for you to do your research or you can get ideas at the Archive Exhibition. Oh Yes - any characters outside the Fontmell can be celebrating and Morris-dancing! So plenty of ideas this year!

Garden Club

The Garden Club held its Social Evening on Thursday 20th April. We began with Gardeners' Question Time, when we were able to tap into the combined wisdom of Judy Westgate, Laurie Powell and Andrew Humphris to solve our gardening problems. They were very helpful in responding on reluctant raspberries, skimmia with blackened leaves and advice on polystichum polyblepharum, but it has to be said that the lengthy discussion on how to get rid of moles was, though entertaining, a little inconclusive!

After a short break for the spread of delicious food, which members had provided, we were joined by the Shaftesbury Ukelele Band. They played a selection of songs from days gone by and kept us all humming along for the rest of the evening. We all thoroughly enjoyed ourselves, and if you ever have the chance you should go and hear the band play – they really are excellent.

Robert McCurrach

Parish Council

Annual General Meeting of the Parish Council

The AGM of the Parish Council was held on Monday 8th May following the Annual Parish Meeting from 7.00 to 7.35pm.

Cllr. Horstead was re-elected Chairman for the period to September 2017. Cllr. Humphreys was elected Vice Chairman and Cllr. de la Perrelle elected RFO (until September).

The following responsibilities were also assigned:

Development Control – Cllrs. Humphreys and Horstead.

Highways – Cllr. East.

Footpaths/Trees – Cllr. de la Perrelle.

Flood Warden – Cllr. Williams.

Neighbourhood Plan – Cllr. Humphreys.

The normal Parish Council meeting followed the AGM.

Public Questions

Robert McCurrach drew attention to the request from the Air Ambulance for notification of safe landing areas. He and Cllr. East will endeavour to identify a suitable site.

Parish Council Meeting

Five parish councillors were present, together with 8 members of the public. Apologies were received from Cllr. Roberts, NDDC Cllr. Langham, and DCC Cllr. Carr-Jones.

The minutes of the last PC meeting on Monday 13th March, and the extraordinary meeting of Thursday 27th April (called to approve certain expenditure on the Neighbourhood Plan) were approved and signed. An election for a new parish Cllr. Has not been requested, so the PC will consider co-opting a willing person.

Matters arising

Cllr. East said that he was getting alternative quotes for the painting of the Bedchester phone-box, and was trying to contact Bedchester residents to see what help they could provide. He also reported that the two public consultations on the A350/C13 had been postponed because of the General Election.

County/District Councillor's Report

Graham Carr-Jones has been elected as our new County Cllr. Some NDDC services are now provided from Dorchester.

Planning

The application for a proposed distillery at Springhead Farm has been approved. There were no other planning matters.

Finance

The PC started the financial year April 2016-March 2017 with a balance of £11,380 and closed with a balance of £8,041. The precept for 2017/18 had been set at £7,000. Sections 1 and 2 of the Annual Return for 2016/17 were approved and signed. The schedule of assets (totalling £58,192) was also agreed, but on the understanding that it would be discussed at a future meeting. Payment of bills, including insurance renewal, was agreed. Cllr. East reported that further expense would be incurred to remove the dead cherry tree (including the stump) adjacent to the War Memorial, as well as removing dead wood from the neighbouring tree. The dead tree would be replaced by a new tree. Changes to Standing Orders were postponed until the new clerk is appointed in September. The PC's financial regulations will be reviewed at the next PC meeting.

Other Parish Matters

Highways

Cllr. East reported that Dorset Highways had advised that it will continue to be responsible for all essential work. However non-essential 'cosmetic' work (e.g. sign cleaning) is being delegated to individual parishes to undertake. The A350 Community Group will be keeping a watching brief. The A350 from Royal Chase roundabout in Shaftesbury to just north of St Andrew's View, will be closed for resurfacing for at least 3 days from Monday 22nd May. There will be a notice at Durweston bridge that the A350 will be closed from there but, in response to concerns raised by the village shop that depends on passing trade, the sign will say that the road to Fontmell Magna remains open. Cllr. East is in discussion with DCC Highways about replacing the village sign at Bedchester.

Neighbourhood Plan

Cllr. Humphreys reported that the option consultation on housing and green spaces resulted in 71 questionnaires being returned. A consultation on employment, infrastructure and roads is currently under way and is open until Friday 19th May. It is hoped that a first draft Plan will be available in July. The projected costs of producing a Neighbourhood Plan have risen to around £17,600, largely because of the need to produce a Strategic Environmental Assessment, but additional grant funding is expected to be available to cover the cost.

Dorset Best Kept Village 2018

A notice has been put up in The Fontmell asking for volunteers for a litter pick on Sunday 21st May. This is to help tidy up the village for entry to the above competition.

Community Defibrillator

This was deferred until after the appointment of the new clerk.

Any other business

Cllr. East said that Melbury and Cann PC had invited a speaker on the making and preserving of finger posts for their next meeting on Wednesday 7th June. The PC noted the correspondence received from a resident questioning the Neighbourhood Plan (NP) and the omission of a SHLAA noted site (he is also the owner of the site); the NP team checked, confirmed the owner of the site had been written to in 2016 asking if the site was to be included but the NP did not receive a response. The resident/owner of the land has again been contacted and given a further opportunity to submit his land for consideration in the NP. Tony Gibb, of D.A.P.T.C. (and our last paid clerk) had advised that the PC should be using the DAPT website and email. This will be checked.

The meeting closed at 8.27pm.

The next PC meeting will be on Monday 10th July in the School Hall (time to be confirmed).

A big thank you...

...to everyone, young and the not-so-young, who helped with the litter pick on Sunday 21st May. Thank you especially to The Fontmell for organising it and for laying on free refreshments to those who took part. At least three large sackfuls of rubbish were collected.

Annual Parish Meeting

The meeting was held on Monday 8th May in St Andrew's School Hall and was chaired by the Parish Council Chairman, Cllr. H. Horstead. 15 people were present at the meeting. Representatives from six of the many and varied village organisations reported on their activities.

St Andrew's Church - Barry Roberts reported that changes to service times, and the introduction of lay worship leaders, has meant that weekly services have been maintained. There were good attendances at Christmas, with the reintroduction of the traditional midnight service.

In May, 'Afternoon Tea' in the Village hall raised over £1,000 for the 'Toilet Twinning' project which sponsors toilets and hygiene education in Africa. Later on, the Highnam family generously hosted an enjoyable afternoon at Hurdles farm.

The external walls were repointed and moss removed. In the churchyard, the trees were professionally trimmed. An outbreak of dry rot under the vestry floor has been dealt with and we hope that more permanent ventilation will prevent a recurrence. The clock chime stopped last year due to a broken 'fan', during which it was much missed by residents until the necessary parts had been re-made.

With the church's contribution to the Diocese alone consuming nearly all its general income, the Parochial Church Council is assessing how it can reduce costs and introduce a reserves policy to help protect against financial bad weather in the future.

Garden Club - Robert McCurrach reported that the Garden Club's summer events began with the annual outing to Mapperton House, followed by a stall at the Village Fete and then the Annual Show in the Village Hall, which was well attended by residents.

The winter programme was made up of a selection of interesting talks on a number of gardening topics. Some speakers come from a distance, others are quite local, such as K Price from Ansty PYO, and the head gardener from Kingston Lacy.

The Club welcomes new members and winter meetings are open to all. There is a full programme for 2017/18. Please contact either Robert or the Secretary, Sue Keen, for any further details.

Archive Society - Roger Hillman reported that the society continues meeting monthly with its active band of around nine members. It is presently concentrating on research for its Summer Exhibition 'History of the Land of Fontmell Parish and its use from earliest times to 1945' in the Village Hall daily from 10.00am to 4.00pm on Thursday 27th July to Sunday 30th July.

The society continues to publish its research either in The Gossip Tree or with articles on our website Fontmellmagna.net. There has not been as much material from villagers as in the past. The society involved a professional conservator to report on the state of the collection and means to ensure its integrity. She was very complimentary about the conditions in the room in the Village Hall where the material is stored.

The society answers a steady flow of questions from interested parties through the website on a range of topics but mostly on family members. New members are always welcome.

Village Hall - Chris Bellers reported that income from hiring the hall was up by £400 on last year but, overall, expenditure on the hall exceeded income, mainly because of the cost of redecorating the exterior of the hall. Thank you to Andre Allard for doing such a great job.

From 1st May 2017, hire charges have been increased by £1, so the cost of hiring the hall is now £9 an hour for residents and £11 an hour for non-residents. During the year, the Village Hall committee has discussed improvements to the sound system, and also the possible replacing of the chairs. The committee welcomes any comments or feedback on these or, indeed, any other issues.

The Play Area adjoining the Village Hall is very popular but much of the existing equipment needs replacing, and more facilities are always to be welcomed. Please, if there is anyone who could help with fund-raising, could they contact Chris (811734).

There is still a vacancy for Vice-Chair, and Carl Johnston would welcome someone taking over from him as Secretary. Thank you to everyone who supports the hall, and to Pat Guy for continuing to look after it.

The Gossip Tree - Chris Bellers, Editor, reported that The Gossip Tree committee has a new Chair, Barbara Humphreys, who replaced John Gadd, who had been on the committee since the very start of The Gossip Tree in 1994. Amelia Berriman is now the Treasurer, replacing Howard Horstead. The committee wishes to thank John and Howard for all their years of dedication and commitment to ensuring that the parish has its own monthly newsletter.

Sue Mercer has replaced Ron Day as distributor - thank you to Ron for all his time and effort over the last 7 years, and to all the other distributors. If anyone wants an insert included with The Gossip Tree, please offer Sue help with collating them, as this can be time-consuming.

Printing is now done by the Benefice Office in Shroton, which has proved very reliable, and also much more convenient than the previous printers in Winchester who served us well for many years. However, it has meant that The Gossip Tree is now stapled rather than folded.

Gossip Trees, going back to February 2016, are now on the Parish Council website www.fontmellmagnapc.co.uk.

Thank you to everyone who contributes articles, whether regularly or one-off. Also thank you to Catherine Allard for compiling the Christmas Chimes.

Fontmell Moviola - Libby Gendall reported on another successful year with a further eight films, audience numbers ranging from 30 up to 71. We have had comedy, thrillers and the very thought provoking "I Daniel Blake". Total ticket sales numbered 420. An average audience of around 50 or 55 is needed to break even and this has been achieved.

The bar continues to prove popular and also breaks even despite the need to purchase a temporary licence each time at a cost of £21.50. The committee will receive next Autumn film listings in July and once our chosen titles are confirmed, our next programme will be published in The Gossip Tree. Thank you to the Moviola committee and to the trusty audience of film goers.

Full Strawberry Moon – Friday 9th June

The Full Moon in June is traditionally known as the Full Strawberry Moon, because it was known as a signal to gather ripening fruit. It is also known as the Full Rose Moon and the Honey Moon.

The Moon is also a Micromoon, as it coincides with apogee - the point in the Moon's orbit farthest away from Earth. The Moon orbits Earth in an elliptical path; one side of the path is closer to the Earth than the other. A Full (or New) Moon that occurs around the perigee, the point of the Moon's orbit closest to Earth, is called a Supermoon. Because a Micromoon is further away, it looks about 14% smaller than a Supermoon. The illuminated area also appears 30% smaller, so might seem less bright.

During a Full (or New) Moon, the difference between high and low tide is at its greatest as the gravitational forces of the Moon and the Sun combine to pull the ocean's water in the same direction. These tides are known as spring tides or king tides. Micromoons lead to around 5 cm (2 inches) smaller variation than regular spring tides, called apogean spring tides.

Compost Corner

Another series of Masterchef has just finished and you may have spotted on some of the savoury dishes a sprinkling of tiny leaves, otherwise known as 'micro greens'.

These are tiny seedlings of plants like rocket, radish, sorrel, beetroot, and watercress, and they can be grown on the windowsill, greenhouse or cold frame throughout the year.

But one of the easiest and cheapest micro greens to grow are pea shoots, which have an intense pea flavour and are a great addition to salads or as a leafy sprinkle on a cooked dish. Buy a bag of marrowfat dried peas from the supermarket (the ones you'd use for mushy peas - less than £1 for hundreds of peas) and plant in a tray of compost. In no time at all you'll have a crop of shoots and, once you've harvested some, they'll start growing again. And don't forget that many flowers are edible too: nasturtium, viola tricolour, cornflowers and pot marigolds. There really is no excuse not to create a mini work of art on a supper plate.

Alison Main

Election of Graham Carr-Jones

At the recent Council elections, Graham Carr-Jones (Conservative) was elected as our County Councillor for the ward of Stalbridge & The Beacon with 69% of the vote. Turnout was 39.68%.

Fete

Plans for the village Fete on Saturday 16th September are progressing well and we are now gratefully accepting donations for the bottle stall, bric-a-brac and tombola. New to this year's Fete will be crockery smashing so please dig out any unwanted china...a good excuse for a Spring clean! Prizes for the Grand Draw are also much-needed. Donations can be brought to 36 South Street, Fontmell House or the village shop.

We also need plenty of volunteers to help on the day, so if you think you can spare a couple of hours, please contact Hannah on 811568 or 07917 390549.

Martin Edward Rouse

Martin died peacefully at home on Tuesday 9th May aged 89. Beloved husband of Gill and much loved father and grandfather. Service will be held at St Andrew's Church on Friday 26th May at 2.00pm. Martin and Gill lived for many years, until 2010, in Fontmell House.

Continuing our series of articles featuring Bedchester.

76 Penn Hill – Wickers End

The cottage appears to have built in the mid-19th century to house farm labourers for Bedchester Farm. It seems to have been first occupied by one of the many Still families in the parish. These Stills consisted of George Still (1834-1889), his wife Elizabeth née Mockridge (born 1839 in East Orchard), and their eleven children (7 sons and 4 daughters). In 1880, one of their daughters, Jane, had an illegitimate daughter, May Margery, and they went to live with George's older brother, Tom Still, who then lived three doors down the road. Tom also provided a home for his sister Caroline and brother Charles.

George died aged 55. He was just two years older than his father, Jeremiah Still (1810-1863) when, according to the Western Gazette, he "was found by one of his children, suspended by his neckerchief to one of the floor joists, and was quite dead. An inquest was held on the body, and a verdict of 'felo-de-se' ('felon of himself') recorded. He was buried on Sunday evening without any sacred rites being performed over his grave." The Gazette added: "The deceased was a very profligate character and much addicted to drink, and appears to have lived on very unfriendly terms with his wife and family."

While most of this Still family were illiterate agricultural labourers, George's brother Tom (1855-1931) seemed to have had a happier existence, despite losing a leg when he was aged 11 in an accident at Pipers Mill. He became a shoemaker. By 1889, he was described as "shoemaker and carrier." From at least 1891 he lived at Plum Tree Cottage, 68 West Street and was then described as a "job master". From 1903, he was "jobmaster and carrier", becoming a farmer in 1923.

After George's death, Elizabeth stayed in the cottage for a few years before moving to Iwerne Minster. By 1911, she was living with her daughter Flora and her husband Charles Taylor, a caretaker, in Baker Street, London. After Elizabeth left, the cottage appears to have been occupied by Ann Eliza Parham (1857-1899). In 1901, it was occupied by Matthias Mullins (1823-1906), a labourer, and his much younger wife Emily Mullins (1855-1938). In 1911, only Emily lived here. When she died she was living at 86 Bedchester (Little Lindens, now St Andrews Farm East). Following the 1919 Glyn sale, 76 Penn Hill was bought by Dorset County Council.

In more recent history, the cottage was occupied by William Ernest (Bill) Burden (1893-1967) and Elfreda Gladys Burden née Gray (1900-1968). They had married in 1923 and had one daughter, Gladys Irene Burden (1923-1961), who married Fred Bradley (the son of George Bradley of 71 Bedchester) in 1948. Fred Bradley was one of the milkmen pictured in our August 2016 issue.

Bill was a carrier and had served with the Dorsets in Egypt during the First World War. In about 1925, their nephew, George James Burden, then about 5, came to live with them when his mother Annie died (his father was Victor Thomas Burden).

George was educated at St Andrew's School, Fontmell Magna, and at Shaftesbury Grammar School, and worked as a groundsman at Clayesmore School in Iwerne Minster. In the Second World War, he joined the 2nd Battalion, The Dorsetshire Regiment and was posted to Burma. He was killed in action before Mandalay – while acting as a stretcher bearer taking a wounded man to the Aid Post, a shell burst and he was killed.

In 'My Dorset Days' by Tim Barnes, the author states: "Particularly I recall George, a clean living and God-fearing bachelor, a young man who worked on one of the larger estates as a gardener and whose religious beliefs forbade him to bear a rifle but who readily undertook stretcher party duties".

The Medical Officer of the Dorsets wrote to his uncle and aunt: "The story of his death is poor comfort, but it should make you proud. His Company were being shelled at the time, and had some casualties. It was the sort of occasion when everyone was keeping well down in their trenches, and it took a very brave man to bring them back to my Aid Post. George didn't hesitate for a moment, and brought them safely back. It was while he was returning to his Company, in case he was needed again, that a shell caught him and he was killed instantly."

The Parish Magazine recorded that George, in a very direct way, "laid down his life for his friends". "We shall miss him. He was a regular Churchgoer, Communicant, and Bell-ringer, the sort of fellow that is a real loss to any Parish when he is taken away. When the news came a Peal was rung, with his Bell muffled, a tribute to the respect in which he was held". George was buried with honour in the Taukkyan war cemetery in Burma (Myanmar). His name is on his parents' gravestone at East Orchard church, as well as being on the Fontmell Magna War Memorial.
