

New Homes in Fontmell

The development of 30 new homes on land at Home Farm, South Street, has finally received planning permission. The developers, Pennyfarthing Homes, have asked the Parish Council for a list of four names for the roads in the development, from which Dorset Council will select the ones they need.

Below is a shortlist of names prepared by the Parish Council and Fontmell Archive Society. All the names have an historical and/or current link with Fontmell village.

We are asking everyone to vote for four names from the eight suggested. Please enter your preferences in the form below - one response per person; children and young people’s views are especially welcome.

Please leave your voting slip in one of the boxes in the Village Shop or Village Hall, or return by email to clerk@fontmellmagnapc.co.uk. The closing date for voting is 31st January 2022.
